UM COMBINED CONCERT RESCHEDULED

The University of Montana music department will present a combined concert featuring the University Band and the UM Varsity Band on Sunday, June 1, at 3 p.m. in the University Center Ballroom.

The performance, which is free and open to the public, was originally scheduled for May 22 but was cancelled due to the volcanic ash fallout.

The University Band, composed mainly of music majors, includes approximately 65 students who are chosen by audition. It is directed by UM Assistant Professor Tom Cook.

The Varsity Band was established this winter as a new element within the University Band program. Most of its members are students with majors in areas other than music, and it is open to all students, without audition. The Varsity Band is conducted by Cook as well as John Schuberg and Dan Morgan, both UM graduate students.

UM Assistant Professor Roger McDonald will be featured as a guest soloist on the oboe. McDonald holds a master of music degree from Yale University and presently teaches oboe as well as saxophone at UM.

The Varsity Band will perform "Pageant," by Vincent Persichetti; "Concertante for Alto Saxophone and Symphonic Band" (featuring McDonald as soloist), by Clare Grundman; and "March--Seventeen Come Sunday," by Ralph Vaughan Williams.

Pieces to be played by the University Band include "Pacific Celebration Suite," by Roger Nixon; "Flores De Espana," by Pascual Perez Chovi; "Sinfonia No. 4," by Walter S. Hartley; and "Rocky Point Holiday," by Ron Nelson.
